MEET THE STIRLINGS

The Stirlings are already causing a “stir” in Hodesto. The family moved into a large mansion at 1313 Constitution Court, just off Constitution Street. The home is furnished with several baby grand pianos and all of Trixie’s stuffed pet cats from the past.

Trixie

She is a former Hodesto soap actress and the younger sister of Myrtle Wiggins. She hasn’t been to Hodesto in several years after having a huge fight with Myrtle. No one knows what the fight was about. She met her husband Leonard while working in the modeling world of New York. She wasn’t exactly well liked amongst Leonard’s family, but she didn’t care. She has a pet cat named Bootsie.

Leonard

Born into a multi-million dollar real estate legacy, Leonard Stirling turned it into a BILLION. He was wild and rebellious when he married Trixie. His family disapproved but, he liked that. But as the years went by, and his interest in the family business grew, he slowly got fed up with her but, he is trapped in the marriage thanks to no prenup. He thinks Hodesto would be a great place to buy up...

Ferenzo

Ferenzo thinks he’s an up and coming pop star. He is in Hodesto because he wants to record a song with his idol, RudePaul and possibly work in her salon. (He graduated from a NY Beauty College, despite his fathers disapproval) His sexuality has been a giant source of rumors for years, and has declined to define it to the media. He says “Let people make up their own fantasy about me. Meow!”

Symphony

She is an oversexed firecracker who managed to get a nursing degree. She was recently cleared on charges of “handing out drugs door to door like it was Halloween” at a rehab center she worked at briefly. She now wants to venture into the club business. She is setting her sights on Hodesto as the new party destination. She always is trying to do right, but always seems to muck things up. Hopefully she can spice up Hodesto night life.

Dr. Marlena

THE DOCTOR'S IN

DR. MARLENA TALKS COMEBACK & HELPING BARCELONA IN REHAB

Former Hodesto mayor, Dr. Marlena Hall, has been back for several weeks working with Barcelona in rehab. But how does she feel about returning to the town that turned her away? “It feels great to be back in this fabulous town and doing what I do best: healing. I did have reservations about coming back, because the last thing I want to do is upset the towns people, but Barcelona’s case was enough to bring me back. I am living in a nice deluxe apartment at Constitution Towers and I have a court appointed bodyguard just to make sure no one gets funny.”

Before we asked about the progress on Barcelona, we had to get her thoughts on the current political climate in Hodesto. “I know its a bit crazy with 2 feuding sister running against eachother, but that’s all I will say. I’m officially out of the political ring. I want to focus on my psychiatry practice and the wellness of my patients.” We then asked how Barcelona’s been doing. “We have made great progress in the few weeks I’ve been back in town. I’ve been able to hypnotize her to reveal the deep seeded issues she has and pluck them out.”

Barcelona spoke to us about her breakthrough. “I re-uh-lyzed I had an ishya with my son being GAY and HAPPY! Aren’t gay peepole suppose to be lonely and depresseded? But Dr. Marlentah showed me that the only person who was lonely and depressed was me and I was str8! My whole world flippt!”

Barcelona revealed to us that she hasn’t seen her son since entering rehab. “He don’t need to see me lykk thyz.” Dr. Marlena insist that isolating her from outside news will be the best for her recovery, and when it’s time for her to leave, she will be briefed a few days before her release.

Dr. Marlena added “Even though she has made great strides, she still has negative feelings towards her son’s fiancé, Freddie Q - which I have not told her a wedding is taking place. It would just give her a set back. But, I feel we’re almost “there” with Barcelona.” Hopefully no one leaves an issue of The Hodesto Star lying around Hodesto Wellness & Recovery rehab center!

CLUCH YOUR PEARLS!

JEWEL MUGGER HITS HODESTO!

Several Hodesto soap stars have been mugged for their jewels! Detective Ferguson (younger brother of Dr. Ferguson), reveals exclusively to The Hodesto Star that they have no leads, except that they know it's the work of one person. Here is a list of the victims so far...

Gladys Barber

Hodesto's soap diva who has played Paula on "Fear of Tomorrow" for more than 40 years was the first victim. "I came out from the studio, y'all. It was a Friday, I just had some fried cheese sticks. And then from behind I felt a karate chop. The next thing I know I'm robbed of my precious pig skin Lou Ping purse and 50 dollars of Target jewelry I stole from backstage! To be robbed was horrific! I felt like I was in a soap opera!"

Carmilla D'Corps

Hodesto soap producer/star and former Hodesto Star editor in chief, recalls her mugging. "Just like Gladys I got a karate chop! I saw a flash of light and I woke up PEARLESS! Those are the oldest pearls in Hodesto! I want them back. Who does these things to well respected people in the community?" Carmilla says she plans to write a storyline like this into one of the soaps.

Misty Walsh

She plays Alexis on "The Rough & The Resilient". She described her attacker as a "black shadow". "I had just spent all night filming in a fake baby bump and my back hurt from that and the gang rape scene I was in. I was almost at my house when I saw this black shadow. I then woke up on my doorstep, with a dildo in my mouth and my diamond earrings gone! I had taken the dildo home to practice for the next day's scenes."

Charles Rivers

He plays the troubled David on "House of Rapture". He says he was robbed of his blinged out cock ring! "This was much more than a mugging! It was a HATE CRIME! How come the other women didn't have their vagina rings stolen? I was borrowing that cock ring from one of my dearest friends. Now I owe them 20 bucks! DAMN IT!" Charles also says that whoever took it more than likely has crabs now.

VERLENE'S AFRAID TO ANSWER THE PHONE!

SHE FEARS DEBT
COLLECTORS WILL BE ON THE OTHER END!

Swan Manor is tired of taking debt collector calls for Verlene and are now transferring them straight to her room phone. "I am so scared. I haven't slept all week!" says Verlene, the self proclaimed "60 something beauty" (We're not sure about that one). She also told us: "I do NOT have a gambling problem! Who have you been talking to?" She claims those calls are from unpaid "tanning sessions" over at RudePaul's Beauty Face's newly installed "Bronzing Pod" tanning corner.

Verlene

Verlene's dearest friend, the lovely Ms. Mabel Cocoa Korenik says, "That tanning bed fried her head! She trying to tell me she owe them money? Lord knows I gave her a 5 to get herself some lotto tickets because she needed a fix! And I've heard her recently place bets on the local dog show! She might tan a lot, but that's only because she wishes she was black, but you have to pay before you go in! Who does she think I am? I'm nooo dummy!"

We asked around Swan Manor about Verlene's supposed addiction. Joy Nell Bouvier backs it up. "When she is not busy lying down for Mr. Beasley, she's at the local dog show. Just the other day I found a betting slip with her name on it on the coffee table in the TV room while I was watching my stories."

Mr. Beasley says she started gambling recently. "It just happened one day. She got really into the nightly bingo game. Then the next day she was at the dog shows placing bets and picking losers all the while going crazy on lotto tickets. I have never seen her so obsessed... other than with tanning. She knows I like her skin looking caramelly."

Verlene finally broke down to us. "Okay, I ADMIT IT! I have a problem... It's turned into quite the obsession. I can't explain it. It's like I'm under a spell! And now I'm under constant fear of the phone. I can't take it!"

Swan Manor has informed us that Verlene is so far in debt, she'll run out of money soon to pay for the nursing home. A rep for the nursing home tells us, "Verlene will be kicked to the curb in her moo moo in the middle of the night if she doesn't start paying her nursing home bill! This isn't a free shelter!"

What will Verlene do to get her life back on track? Will she have to leave Swan Manor and rebuild her life at "60"? She says she's still trying to figure out her options.

THE MAYORAL DEBATES

Malan and Naomi went head to head in the first (and only) mayoral debate on TV before the big election! It was pretty heated. Here's a few questions and answers from the debate.

Question #1: What do you plan to do with Hodesto's surplus budget?

Malan: I would take care of the homeless situation. They obviously don't want homes, so I'd spend that money bussing them out of town and dropping them off. Gas for busses cost a lot, so there.

Naomi: I would OBVIOUSLY build better equipped shelters for these people. Ones that can help people get back on track with their lives. Help them find jobs and places of their own, not strip them of their dignity. YOU REPUBLICAN CUNT!

Question #2: How do you feel about SHOPA? Start Hodesto Organized Prayer Act?

Malan: I back this act 100%. We need prayer everywhere in Hodesto. You see the gays have taken over. The crime rate will go up now that former liberal mayor Dr. Marlena Hall is back. We must use prayer to combat the evil, such as homelessness AND universal healthcare! It's bad bad bad!

Naomi: After hearing that, the only prayer I have is for SHOPA and Malan to both drop dead. I can't wait for "JESUH" to answer that one! Oh yes! Pssh!

Question #3: What is your stance on illegal immigrants?

Malan: Those insects are crowding our schools and hospitals. We obviously need to pull over anyone who remotely looks Mexican! Even if it's a white guy with a taco!

Naomi: If Malan had her way, everyone would be sent to prison. Stop this madness! No prayer, no deportations, just abortions! Malan's had a few!

"YOU
REPUBLICAN
CUNT!"

"WE NEED
PRAYER

MARCI & RE'CES REUNITE

Marci Wiggins and her daughter, Re'ces Wiggins have finally reunited after Marci disappeared on her own. Re'ces is currently under guardianship of her aunt, Malan Wiggins. Marci is currently looking for a stomach donor to cure her failing health as a result of her secretly botched gastric bypass. She is staying at Hodesto General Hospital. Dr. Ferguson is with her.

Re'ces reportedly entered Marci's hospital room in a cold manner. A nurse on staff told us "Re'ces is very angry and disgusted. She can't believe after years of Burger King and years of telling Re'ces "big is beautiful", that her mother would go under the knife to change all of that."

Marci could only agree with her. The nurse says "Marci knew she had let down everybody. She even told Re'ces she's getting her own Constitution Towers apartment since Re'ces told her she can't handle living with Malan or being at their home and needs her own space and time to think. Re'ces already lost her mother once, and now with this stomach donor thing, she may just lose her again."

MARCI'S HEALTH UPDATE

We were able to track down Marci's doctor, Dr. Ferguson, who did the gastric bypass surgery even though he advised her against it. (We'll let you decide what you think about that). He tells us the terrible details.

"Marci is indeed dying. She needs to find a stomach somewhere. Her body is so used to grease that eating less and having a "healthy" diet made it turn on itself. Marci has essentially made herself allergic to fruits and vegetables."

Dr. Ferguson reveals the mental anguish this has caused Marci. "She is mentally drained. She is seeing a therapist 3 times a week. I am checking up on her 10 times a day. I will try my hardest to find a stomach for Marci. I performed the gastric, and I plan to perform the transplant as soon as we can find a donor. "

One last thing our hospital source told was that they have notice how close Dr. Ferguson and Marci have gotten. Could there be romance in the air between the two during this whole ordeal? Sometimes loves comes out of the darkest of situations. We hope Marci gets her miracle stomach transplant and lives to eat another Marci Meal at the Constitution Street Burger King!

Powers That Be

Gordon and his wife grow closer again after she lets him in on her lesbian affair, but they don't know the other woman was doing this for blackmail purposes. Elton and Brock both killed the magazine editor, why? Because they write that shit as they go. Looks like Olivia forgot to close down her Swiss bank accounts and the press are butchering her. How will she win president now? Andreas develops a meth habit and accidentally loses his child, Ronny, during a high. He steals some baby off a bus and takes it back home. He won't let Olivia touch the baby.

The Rough & The Resilient

Owen and Kelly are having fun messing with Alexis. Alexis is taken aback by how Owen and Kelly are reacting to the news and starts snooping for the truth. Phillip asks Audrina out only to look straight to his coworkers. Audrina comes on strong, but doesn't understand why Phillip can't "perform". Randy and Lillian are getting closer, he even asks her to move in with him. She agrees, but things change when his evil mother loses her home and has to move in. Morgan gets murdered and Travis is the prime suspect. Blake finds a home for his newly found son.
